Context

Eurosité - the European Land Conservation Network - is a unique organisation. We provide networking, capacity building, training, information, advocacy, and awareness raising services for conservation practitioners all over Europe. Our members and partners are organisations and individuals working on and caring for land and nature conservation in governmental and civic society organisations, within and outside the EU. They work across a broad range of topics and geographic levels, but always with a keen interest in practical aspects of day-to-day natural site management, restoration and conservation as well as the implementation of nature conservation policies, both inside and outside protected areas.

Fundació Catalunya La Pedrera was founded in 2013 to respond to a new social reality with a new vision. It is a foundation that aims for ethics and innovation, believes in proximity and dynamism, and seeks to transform their dedication to the Catalan region and its people into action. The organisation's mission is to work proactively for the development and social transformation of Catalonia, helping whoever needs them, including entrepreneurs, those who work for the future and those who create new ideas. The La Pedrera building, which has been declared a UNESCO Human Heritage Site, is the headquarters and beacon of the foundation. From here, its employees work on five key themes: social promotion, culture, territory and environment, knowledge and research, and diet and nutrition.

The organisation of the Eurosité Annual Meeting 2021 is financially supported by the EU LIFE Programme. The sole responsibility lies with the author - the Agency is not responsible for any use that may be made of the information contained in this programme.
